

Egling Middle School
Weekly Bulletin
March 18-March 22

“At Egling Middle School our mission is to provide a safe, positive learning environment, in which students persevere and become responsible, critical thinking, life-long learners, who can work collaboratively as well as independently.”

Message from the Principal

Good Friday Afternoon,

The wind and spring weather is causing some feistiness around campus, if you could please reinforce at home appropriate school behaviors. Being physical is not okay and to keep your hands to yourself. We have some fun events coming up in the next weeks and want everyone to enjoy, however if students are inappropriate with their behavior they will have to miss. I hope all have any enjoyable weekend and get a chance to relax.

Regards,

Erika Lemenager, Principal
